

1-26-83

Dwight Fuller ✓

Services for Dwight (Dutch) Fuller, 75, Groton, were held at 2 p.m., Wednesday, Jan. 19, at the Paetznick-Garness Funeral Chapel in Groton with the Rev. John Maines officiating.

Burial was in the Groton Union Cemetery.

Mr. Fuller died Sunday, Jan. 16, at St. Luke's Hospital, Aberdeen.

Casketbearers were Edwin Nehls, Harlan Radke Jr., Glenn Sperry, Edward Stauch and Bill McKiver, all of Groton; and Jim Larson, Bath. Mrs. Eugene Neuman was the organist and Lee Schinkel, the soloist, sang "The Old Rugged Cross" and "Beyond the Sunset".

Mr. Fuller was born January 30, 1907, at Groton. He grew up here and married Ruby Christman July 7, 1938, at Webster. He worked as a section foreman for the Milwaukee Railroad until his retirement. The family lived in Groton until 1943 when they moved to Bath. In 1958 they moved to Aberdeen and in 1962 they returned to Groton where he had since resided.

Survivors include his widow; one son, Robert, Aberdeen; one brother, Raymond (Dick) Fuller, Billings, Mont.; one sister, Mrs. Georgia Boyes, Billings, Mont., and three grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by five sisters and two brothers.